

SOCCER ACADEMY
TORONTO

SQUARESEVEN
INTERNATIONAL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ramy Botros Named Official Spokesperson for Al Ahly Soccer Academy – Toronto

Toronto, Canada – July 3, 2025 – Square Seven International and Al Ahly Soccer Academy announce the appointment of Ramy Botros as the official spokesperson for Al Ahly Soccer Academy – Toronto, the first North American branch of Egypt's legendary football powerhouse owned by Al Ahly Football Company.

With a distinguished career spanning Arabic media, journalism, and international business consultancy, Mr. Botros brings the experience and community leadership to the Academy's Toronto chapter. He currently serves as CEO of Oxygen Media Production and Editor-in-Chief of Oxygen Canada News. He is also known for hosting the acclaimed Arabic-Canadian television show "Oxygen with Ramy" on Rogers and Bell networks. A passionate community leader, Mr. Botros holds an MBA and is a professor at Sheridan College, as well as an influential figure in Canadian Egyptian relations through various nonprofit and business councils.

"Al Ahly represents more than a football club—it is a legacy of excellence, discipline, and unity," said Ramy Botros. "I'm proud to serve as the voice of this historic step forward for our youth and our community in Toronto."

The launch of Al Ahly Soccer Academy – Toronto marks the club's first official youth presence in North America. Led by Square Seven International, this expansion aims to develop young talent to the highest global standards while staying rooted in the club's rich spirit.

Al Ahly Football Company, named Club of the Century in Africa, brings a legacy of sporting success and character development to this new home in Canada. The Toronto Academy will serve as a gateway for aspiring players and a platform for sharing the club's world-class philosophy.